Rown's Notice for the Restoration of Certain Lands to Market in the Stafe of Wisconsin.

THE grant of land to Wisconsin by the act of Cougress approved ad June, 1856, has been so far adjusted as to authorize the rolease from withdrawal of the vacant offered lands outside of the six mites limits of the following routes for railroads, viz:

First. The railroad route from "Madison or Columbus, by the way of Portage City, to the St. Great river, or lake, between townships, twenty five and thirty one." and.

twenty-five and thirty-one," and,
Second. Of the road from "Fond du Lac, on Lake Winnebago, north-ment of the Interior, although more than a year and a half have clapsed since said withdrawal.

Notice is therefore hereby gines that all the vacant offered lands heretofore withdrawn from sale or entry along the routes of said located railroads which lie outside of six miles on each side of the said roads, situated in the undermentioned townships, which have not been ac lected in virtue of said grant, or any other grant made by Congress, or logally claimed by pre-emption, and which were subject to private entry at the date of withdrawal, will be restored to private entry on the days and at the places hereinafter specified, at the ordinary minimum of one dollar and twenty-five cents per acre. And all the effered townships as bereinafter described which had been withdrawn from sale on account of the proposed roads, not yet located, mentioned in the foregoing, will be restored at the times herefunder designated, with the express provise, that the railroad grant by said act of 3d June, 1886, will attach to such of the odd-numbered sections as may be selected under said act within the six-miles limits of such parts of the said roads as may be actually surveyed and staked off before the day hereinafter fixed for the restoration of said lands.

JUST RECEIVED, the following works of J. V Huntington:
Lady Alice. 25 cents.
Alban. 2 vols. $2.
The Forest. $1 25.
The Pretty Plate. (Juvenile.) 50 cents.
"Lady Alice is decidedly a work of genius. Indeed, we know a few fletions where this first and highest excellence is more apparent."
[Roston Post.]

"This is an extraordinary book. "That the author wa animated by a deeper emotion than that of the production of a cleave and somewhat surprising novel which should make a great sensition, we are perfectly satisfied, nower, are unsparingly exercised through out."—Douglass Jerrold; Weekly News.

"Talent of a high order teems on every page."
[London New Monthly Mag-Besides the admirable sketches of society, the story of Alba Atherton has a great purpose." London New Monthly.

"The young lady characters in Alban are just such girls as we have all known and some of us perhaps have loved." Whig Recies.

"The Forest' is one of the finest pictures ever painted of an out-door life in the wild regious of this Nate; and we spack with a vivil memory of all that Cooper and Hoffman have done. Its defineance of individual character are hardly less admirable."

[N. F. Concier and Enquirer.

[N. F. Courier and Enquier.

'Woods, lakes, and water-falls, the forest clearing, and the near tain wilderness attract Mr. Huntington with the freshness and variet of a new inspiration."—N. F. Literary World.

'The descriptive powers evinoed in 'The Forest' are extraordisary."—N. F. Econgelist.

"The linest portions of the work are the descriptions of hunting and of the grand scenery of the North. Here the author's thought fow in native channels, but the beautiful netures of the with wood alakes, and the myriad phases of nature in forest, stream, and montain, are pointed with masterly and positively."

[Protestant Charcheson.]

"That Mr. Designated Marchael in the N. Y. Freeman's Journal.

"That Mr. Huntington has such a faculty and gifts may be seen by any one who will read ten pages of The Forest." The sports, the atventures of an Indian hunting-ground, are not before the reader's and with the sharp outlines, the humor, and the breadth of real life. The incidents of the journey through the wilderness, the moral interest growing up like flowers out of the commonest material facts, are charmingly described."—London Atheneum.

"We venture to say that no roader; great or small, who takes up this book ('The Pretty Plate') will bay it down unfinished. It tolks destry of a story told to half a dozon children in a tire-til parior. The comments point in a few words the character of those who make then with such graphic power that we see the listeners before us, in respect the book is quite remarkable. We have not met with one a which juvenile character was so discriminated and spertrased."
